DIFT - The Information Centre of the future

GENERAL

Everywhere there is something to see, to do or to know [archaeological sites, walking ways, cycling, riding, cruising, museums, special events, cities, itineraries, restaurants, shows, local-regional-national addresses, conferences and meetings, etc], but there is no direct link between all the activities and sites.

DIFT is the perfect tool for all the information you need or want to see.

DIFT - The information Centre of the future

Central focus of events information for the local and surrounding areas.

Provide additional useful information for website visitors, free to view.

LISTINGS of all amenities and other services.

Low cost for printing maps and details.

Emphasis on WHAT'S ON, WHAT TO DO, WHERE TO GO and HOW TO GET THERE.

Attract tourists and residents into the area to discover their treasures

Quick-link service for associations and locations covered by the site.

Market businesses at a economical, sensible rate.

Medium for local non-profit groups to promote their events, free of charge.

Offers supermarkets and businesses to advertise and promote their own products.
